...supporting parents with learning disabilities
by working together

24th March 2010

9:30 am – 4:00 pm

Renewal Conference Centre, Solihull, B91 2JR

This free conference will provide an opportunity to explore how different agencies can work together to provide the support people with learning disabilities need as parents.

The day will be invaluable for any statutory or voluntary agency providing a service that has contact with people with learning disabilities who are already parents, or who may become parents.
